Governor's Proclamation

WHEREAS, the future availability of a skilled workforce depends on affordable education opportunities for all of our young people; and

WHEREAS, scholarships supply funds to help pay for the cost of postsecondary schooling; and

WHEREAS, many students are able to pursue their education due to the motivation and scholarship support offered by government, institutional, and private entities; and

WHEREAS, scholarships challenge, encourage, and give hope to students of all socioeconomic backgrounds to obtain the benefits of a postsecondary education.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Mark Sanford, Governor of the Great State of South Carolina, do hereby proclaim May 2004 as throughout the state and encourage all South Carolinians to recognize the value and opportunities available through scholarship programs in the Palmetto State.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Mark Sanford", is written over a horizontal line.
